Concept & Feasibility Design

Planning & Listed Building Applications Specification

Full Architectural Services

Depending on the particular requirements of the project, procurement http://www.produce outline specifications and schedules of work up to full NBS specification documents.

Project Management & Contract Administration

These communicate the scope, quality and other requirements of the products and materials that go in to making a building project in order to ensure that the contractor delivers what the client is expecting.

©2013-2017 Haines Phillips Architects
Andrews Downie and & Partners