

Project Management & Contract Administration

Our services in project management and contract administration deal with the coordination necessary to manage the complex process of transforming a brief and design into a building. This includes leading the project team, monitoring the progress and quality of the whole design and construction team against the issues of budget, scheduling and quality control. We administer the building contract through the procurement, construction, handover and conclusion of the construction process.

Concept & Feasibility Design

Planning & Listed Building Applications

Full Architectural Services

Interior Design Services

Specification

