

Kensington Place

Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea, W8

The refurbishment and extension of this Hillgate Village terraced house demonstrate how old and new combine successfully.

The lower ground floor with its almost minimalist interior and small paved garden is but a few steps from a ground floor living area with retained original cornices and panel doors. And a former water tank space at the back of the “butterfly” roof becomes a tiny but effective fitted study.

Client: Private

